GRADUATE STUDENTS
NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Get your UMNetID
With this, you get access to online library resources, computer labs, wireless networks and an official UM email account.

Subject Librarians
Librarians with subject expertise are available to help you with your research. Book an appointment today. http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/gradhelp/personal

MSpace
Store and share copies of your research and scholarship in MSpace, our institutional repository. Submitting your thesis or dissertation to MSpace is a graduation requirement.

Student Card
Your U of M ID card is also your library card. Use it to borrow from any UM library. To find an item, make note of which library holds the item, the location in that library, and the call number.

Subject Guides
In each subject guide you will find specialized databases and information in that area including how to contact your subject librarian. Meet with your librarian and see what they can do to help with your research!

Borrow
As a U of M student, you are able to borrow up to 200 items at a time. For details about access and borrowing, go to: libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/gradhelp/borrow.

Online Help
Consult the many resources under the Graduate Students link within Library Services. The Thesis Toolkit: http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/thesis links you to all the resources you need as a graduate student. You can also use our Ask Us service to chat live with library staff.

Access
The Libraries is your gateway to research materials but also citation management tools, research assistance, computer labs, as well as writing and research workshops.
Study spaces exclusively for graduate students are available in some libraries. Visit your library for more information.
